UNIFORM POLICY REMINDERS

DRESS CODE AS LISTED IN STUDENT HANDBOOKS*

CCS has a responsibility to keep students focused on education while providing the best possible environment for success. Our uniform policy follows NEAT, CLEAN AND MODEST guidelines. This policy is intended to serve as a tool to:

- Create an atmosphere free from distraction.
- Serve to dispense with competition due to outward appearance and affluence.
- De-emphasize outward appearance in favor of inner beauty and character.

UNIFORMS

Uniforms are defined as Parker/Campus Store purchased bottoms and collared polo shirts with the school crest. Uniforms are required for all kindergarten through 12th grade students Monday through Thursday. Uniforms are to be purchased from the Crossings Campus Store and/or some items may be purchased through our annual used uniform sale at a reduced price, sponsored by the Junior Class.

All outerwear worn in the building must be CCS apparel.

A uniform shirt must be worn underneath CCS outerwear.

SPIRIT DAY

Every Friday or the last day of the school week, students may wear any CCS shirt and denim that meet our NEAT, CLEAN, AND MODEST requirements.

NEAT, CLEAN AND MODEST – length to come below fingertips at student’s side. No holes, frays or stains.

*Whether a student’s appearance is in compliance with the policy is determined by the principal or Dean of Students of the applicable division.
